I further state that I relocated from Texas in 1990 to the District of Columbia and at that time became a non-resident member of the State of Texas bar. I was administratively suspended for non-payment of dues and made those dues payments current. I voluntarily resigned from the Texas bar in 2006. During my residency in the State of Texas, I was a member in good standing of the US District Court for the Southern District of Texas, but since my relocation, I have not renewed that membership.
